Unless otherwise required by law, Channel Partner will pay all applicable country, state, municipal and other taxes including, without limitation, sales, use, value added, withholding and other taxes, and customs and import duties on Products, other than taxes based upon Forcepoint's net income. IN NO EVENT WILL FORCEPOINT'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNT ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY FORCEPOINT FOR THE APPLICABLE PRODUCTS FOR THE AFFECTED END USER OVER THE ONE YEAR PERIOD PRIOR TO THE EVENT OUT OF WHICH THE CLAIM AROSE FOR THE PRODUCTS THAT DIRECTLY CAUSED THE LIABILITY.

9. Confidential Information. Each party (the "Disclosing Party") may disclose to the other (the "Receiving Party") certain confidential technical and business information which the Disclosing Party desires the Receiving Party to treat as confidential. "Confidential Information" means any information disclosed by either party to the other party, either directly or indirectly, in writing, orally, electronically or by inspection of tangible objects (including without limitation documents, prototypes, equipment, technical data, trade secrets and know-how, product plans, Products, services, suppliers, customer lists and customer information, prices and costs, markets, software, databases, developments, inventions, processes, formulas, technology, employee information, designs, drawings, engineering, hardware configuration information, marketing, licenses, finances, budgets and other business information), which is designated as "Confidential," "Proprietary" or some similar designation at or prior to the time of disclosure, or which should otherwise reasonably be considered confidential by the Receiving Party. The Receiving Party agrees it will take the same measures, but no less than reasonable security measures, and use the same care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, as it uses with its own confidential information to preserve and protect the secrecy of, and to avoid disclosure or unauthorized use, publication, or distribution of, the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information. The Receiving Party may use Confidential Information only for the purposes identified in this Agreement and will disclose the Confidential Information only to its employees, agents or consultants who have a need to know the Confidential Information, have been advised of the confidentiality obligations related to the Confidential Information, and are under an obligation of confidentiality no less stringent than that contained herein. 11. Right to Use Trademark and Trade Name. Any and all trademarks and trade names which Forcepoint uses in connection with the rights granted hereunder are and remain the exclusive property of Forcepoint. This Agreement gives the Channel Partner no right therein except a limited right to reproduce trademarks and trade names as necessary for the sole purpose of allowing Channel Partner to fully promote and market Forcepoint Products pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Forcepoint's artwork may be requested and used by Channel Partner for the duration of this Agreement. Channel Partner will abide by the logo and usage guidelines as outlined on the artwork portion of the Forcepoint web site that may be found at: Forcepoint Copyrights and Trademarks.

Channel Partner will comply with all trade sanctions and export control laws and regulations that relate to Channel Partner's activities under this Agreement, including the transactions performed thereunder, including, but not limited to, where applicable: U.S. export controls administered and enforced by the U.S. Commerce Department's Bureau of Industry and Security; U.S. export controls administered and enforced by the U.S. State Department's Directorate of Defense Trade Controls; U.S. trade sanctions administered and enforced by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control; European Union trade sanctions and export laws (including without limitation Council Regulation (EC) No. 428/2009 (as amended)); United Nations resolutions/European Union regulations imposing restrictive measures/trade sanctions/embargoes or other restrictions on exporting goods and services; and the export/import regulations of other countries. Each party represents and warrants that it is not located, organized, or ordinarily resident in or acting on behalf of a country or territory that is the subject or the target of comprehensive U.S. sanctions (each a "Sanctioned Territory") (currently Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, Syria, and Crimea, but subject to change at any time); and that it is not a party designated under or owned or controlled by a person or party designated under U.S. or E.U. trade sanctions or export controls, including the U.S. Department of Commerce Denied Persons List, Entities List or Unverified List; the U.S. Department of State Debarred List; or any of the lists administered by the U.S. Department of Treasury, including lists of Specially Designated Nationals, Specially Designated Terrorists or Specially Designated Narcotics Traffickers or listed in any restrictive measures (sanctions) lists administered by the EU including without limitation regulations based on Article 215 TFEU and decisions adopted in the framework of the Common Foreign and Security Policy) (collectively, "Restricted Party"). Channel Partner also represents and warrants that it will not sell the Products to any End Users or customers in a Sanctioned Territory, or to any Restricted Party; and that it will not resell the software or technology for any end uses prohibited under applicable export controls.

To the extent Channel Partner engages in any activity pursuant to this Agreement that causes Forcepoint to violate applicable trade sanctions or export control laws or regulations or causes Forcepoint to engage in dealings or transactions with or that benefit Sanctioned Territories or Restricted Parties, Forcepoint has the option to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 12 (Term and Termination) above, and neither party to the Agreement will be required to continue performance thereunder if this option is invoked. Forcepoint will not be liable for any damages claimed by Channel Partner if the Agreement is terminated on this basis.

15. Rights of Government End Users. The Products meet the definition of "commercial item" in Federal Acquisition Regulation ("FAR") 2.101, were developed entirely at private expense, and are provided exclusively under the terms of the End User Agreement. 16. Compliance with Applicable Laws, including Privacy and Anticorruption Laws. Each party will comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including those that may apply to issues relating to anti-bribery and the protection of personal data. Information will be processed by Forcepoint and Channel Partner in accordance with the Forcepoint Privacy Policy that may be found at: Forcepoint Privacy Policy. Channel Partner represents, warrants, and covenants that (a) Channel Partner, its affiliates, owners, officers, directors, employees, and representatives did not and will not (i) directly or indirectly offer, promise, authorize, or provide anything of value to, or (ii) request, agree to receive, or accept anything of value from, any Government Official, political party, party official, candidate for political office, or any other person, or engage in other conduct, that may have caused or may cause Channel Partner or Forcepoint to violate Anticorruption Standards; (b) all information and documentation provided to Forcepoint by or on behalf of Channel Partner are and will be complete and accurate; and (c) Channel Partner will require substantially similar commitments to compliance with Anticorruption Standards in contracts with its suppliers, vendors, End Users, customers or other parties in relation to the Products. Channel Partner acknowledges that, for purposes of this Agreement, a “Government Official” is (i) any officer or employee of any government or any department, agency, or instrumentality of a government, (ii) an officer or employee of a public international organization such as the United Nations or the World Bank, (iii) an individual acting in an official capacity for or on behalf of a government agency, department, instrumentality or of a public international organization, (iv) any officer or employee of a company owned or controlled by any government, or (v) a member of a royal family who may lack formal authority but who may otherwise be influential, including by owning or managing state-owned or controlled companies. Channel Partner covenants that it will inform Forcepoint promptly in writing if any such person assumes such a position while at the same time remaining one of Channel Partner’s owners, directors, officers, partners, or employees involved in Channel Partner’s activities under this Agreement. Upon Forcepoint’s written request, Channel Partner will promptly provide written certifications of its compliance with, and the continuing accuracy of, the statements made in, this Section.

Channel Partner represents, warrants, and covenants that it has devised and will maintain a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that all expenditures in connection with the Agreement or the Products are properly authorized, recorded, and consistent with this Agreement. Forcepoint or its designated agent will have the right, upon reasonable notice and at Forcepoint’s expense, to inspect and copy the accounts, books, and records of Channel Partner which may reasonably be related to Channel Partner’s activities or transactions in relation to this Agreement or the Products.

18. General. Forcepoint and Channel Partner are independent contractors. No agency or franchisee relationship between Channel Partner and Forcepoint is created by this Agreement. Neither party will have any right or authority to act on behalf of the other or represent that it has such right or authority. For the purposes of customer service, technical support, and as a means of facilitating interactions, Forcepoint may periodically send Channel Partner messages of an informational or advertising nature via email, and provide account information to related third-parties. Channel Partner may at any time update its communications preferences in the Forcepoint Communication Preference Center or by sending an email to privacy@forcepoint.com. Forcepoint may still send emails of a technical nature if Channel Partner “opts out” of receiving messages regarding Upgrades and enhancements. Channel Partner acknowledges that Forcepoint may use Channel Partner’s company name only in a general list of Forcepoint customers. Channel Partner may not assign this Agreement to another person or entity, without first obtaining prior written approval from Forcepoint. Each party affirmatively represents and warrants to the other that this Agreement has been accepted by its duly authorized representative. Notices sent to Forcepoint will be sent to the attention of the General Counsel at 10900-A Stonelake Blvd., 3rd Floor, Austin, TX 78759, USA. Without regard to or application of choice of laws, rules or principles, any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof will be governed by the federal laws of the United States and the laws of the State of Delaware, USA for all claims arising in or related to the United States, Canada, Japan, Brazil, or Mexico and Dublin, Ireland for all other claims. Both parties hereby consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts in Texas, USA for all claims arising in or related to the United States, Canada, Japan, Brazil, or Mexico and the competent courts in Dublin, Ireland for all other claims; provided however that Forcepoint may seek injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction in order to protect its intellectual property. Both parties expressly waive any objections or defense based upon lack of personal jurisdiction or venue. Neither party will be liable for any delay or failure in performance to the extent the delay or failure is caused by events beyond the party’s reasonable control, including, fire, flood, acts of God, explosion, war or the engagement of hostilities, strike, embargo, labor dispute, government requirement, civil disturbances, civil or military authority, disturbances to the Internet, and inability to secure materials or transportation facilities. All incorporated materials and hyperlinked terms and policies are incorporated into and form part of this Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties regarding the subject matter herein. The parties have not relied on any promise, representation, or warranty, express or implied, that is not in this Agreement. Any waiver or modification of this Agreement is only effective if it is in writing and signed by both parties or posted by Forcepoint at Legal Information. All pre-printed or standard terms of any purchase order or other Channel Partner business processing document have no effect, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement will prevail over such forms, and any additional, inconsistent, conflicting, or different terms in such forms will be void and of no force and effect. If any part of this Agreement is found invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Agreement will be interpreted so as reasonably to affect the intention of the parties. Forcepoint is not obligated under any other agreements unless they are in writing and signed by an authorized representative of Forcepoint.
